DESCRIPTION

Wheelchair Accessible Alexandria Trip from Cairo

Enjoy an exceptional tour departing from Cairo to discover the beautiful city of Alexandria.

Founded by Alexander the Great in 332 B.C., Alexandria was the capital of Egypt during the Greco-Roman period and was known as a center of knowledge and culture, rivaling the great Greek cities.

Our private wheelchair-accessible tour starts early in the morning and takes you to some of Alexandria's most iconic sights.

You will explore the city from a vantage point over the Mediterranean Sea, visiting highlights such as Pompey's Pillar, the Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa, and the Bibliotheca Alexandrina, which was once a famous center for learning and scholarship. The tour also includes a visit to the Citadel of Qaitbay, a fortress built to protect Egypt's northern coastline.

Following the tour, you will have the opportunity to enjoy a delicious seafood lunch at a highly-rated restaurant with a view of Alexandria's harbor, offering a genuine taste of traditional Egyptian food.

Book our private guided Cairo to Alexandria wheelchair-accessible tours today to benefit from our special promotions and create memories that last a lifetime.

ITINERARY

DAY 1

Wheelchair Accessible Alexandria Trip from Cairo

Your private wheelchair-accessible tour departs early in the morning from your hotel in Cairo, taking you to Alexandria. On arrival, you'll visit Pompey's Pillar, standing at the site of the ancient Serapeum, followed by the Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa, one of the largest Roman burial sites in Egypt. Next is the Bibliotheca Alexandrina, the modern successor to the ancient Library of Alexandria, and the Citadel of Qaitbay, a coastal fortress overlooking the Mediterranean. Following the sightseeing, you'll enjoy a seafood lunch at a highly-rated restaurant with views over Alexandria's harbor. You'll then be transferred back to your hotel in Cairo.
