ITINERARY

DAY 1

From Cairo to Bahariya Oasis and the White Desert

Your White Desert national park guided adventure starts with a pickup from your place in Cairo, followed by a drive of about four hours to Bahariya Oasis in a modern, air-conditioned vehicle. You'll meet your guide along the way and settle in for the road ahead into Egypt's Western Desert.

When you arrive, you'll sit down to a traditional Egyptian lunch at a local restaurant with a relaxed oasis feel, a good break before the real exploring begins on your White Desert and Bahariya Oasis overnight tour.

After lunch, you'll pass through the Valley of El Haize, a small green settlement tucked into the desert, and if time allows, you can stop at a natural spring to cool off. Next comes Crystal Mountain, where the quartz formations catch the light in all sorts of ways. Then you'll reach the Valley of Agabat, famous for its odd rock shapes, pieces of petrified wood, and wide, rolling sand dunes. If you're feeling adventurous, you can even try sandboarding for a bit of extra fun.

As the day winds down, you'll head into the White Desert to make camp. Watch the sun set over the striking white chalk formations while your local guide cooks dinner. Once it's dark, the desert goes quiet, and you can lie back and look up at a sky full of stars, far from any city lights. You'll sleep under the open sky in one of Egypt's most unusual natural landscapes.

Meals included: Lunch and dinner.

DAY 2

White Desert Exploration and Return to Cairo

You'll wake up as the morning light slowly spreads across the White Desert, and breakfast is waiting at the campsite. Then it's time to explore more of the area's amazing limestone formations, with plenty of chances to take photos of rocks that nature has shaped into a chicken, the Sphinx, a whale, and a rabbit.

After the morning adventure, you'll start the journey back toward Cairo, passing through the Black Desert, where dark volcanic rocks cover the surrounding hills.

On the way, you'll stop in Bahariya Oasis to see its salt lake, wander through local fruit gardens, and take in views of the sand dunes around you. These last stops give you one more look at everyday oasis life before you leave the desert behind.

Your overnight White Desert safari from Cairo ends with a drive of roughly four hours back to your hotel in Cairo.
