Valley of the Kings

The Valley of the Kings is home to many temples that are carved into the mountainside and served as the main burial site for Pharaohs.

It contains over 60 tombs.

Next, you will visit:

Hatshepsut Temple

The Temple of Queen Hatshepsut consists of several temples and tombs and is built in three ascending levels. Hatshepsut was a powerful ruler who was deeply loved by her people, though she was also surrounded by controversy.

Following this, you will be taken to:

Colossi of Memnon

The two Memnon Colossi are the only two statues remaining from the funerary temple built by Amenhotep III. Many historians and rulers have inscribed their names on these statues.

After visiting the Colossi of Memnon, you will enjoy a delicious lunch at a restaurant with a view of the Nile. Your safety is our top priority, and we are committed to completing your two-day journey from Marsa Alam to Luxor and Abu Simbel.

Later, your tour guide will transfer you to the East Bank to conclude your first day with a visit to the:

It consists of three adjacent temples: the main temple, a smaller temple, and an outer temple.

In the evening, our representative will take you by a private, air-conditioned vehicle to Aswan for an overnight stay at a 5-star hotel.

The temples were constructed to commemorate Ramses II's victory in the Battle of Kadesh.

The Large Temple was dedicated to the god Ptah and Ramses II himself, while the Small Temple was dedicated to the goddess Hathor and Nefertiti, the wife of Ramses II.
