The tour leader will accompany you to the best sites to visit.Then you will meet our tour guide in Luxor, as you will be traveling by car directly from Marsa Alam to Luxor.

The journey will begin.

The Valley of Kings is famous for its tombs, which are not just ancient Egyptian tombs but royal tombs.

These tombs feature beautiful and mysterious paintings that still remain on their walls, preserved for over a thousand years.You should visit it to learn more about this fascinating place.

Next, you will go to the second site, which is the Hatshepsut Temple.

This temple is dedicated to the ancient queen Hatshepsut, who ruled Egypt in the past.

It stands out due to its unique architectural design compared to other Egyptian temples, which were typically built on the eastern bank of the Nile in Thebes.After visiting this temple, we will take you to the third and final site of the day.

The Colossi of Memnon are two massive statues, the only remaining parts of a temple built for King Amenhotep III.

These statues represent three figures: King Amenhotep III, his wife Tiy, and his mother Mutemwiya.

Now it is time for lunch.

Afterward, you will visit the last site in Luxor, the Karnak Temple.

This temple was dedicated to Amun Ra and was the largest temple in ancient times at its peak.

It now contains many quarries and remains one of the most significant religious sites of the ancient world.
