Luxor West Bank & East Bank – Temples and Royal Tombs

After breakfast, meet your Egyptologist guide and begin exploring the extraordinary archaeological treasures of Luxor.

Start on the West Bank at the Colossi of Memnon, two monumental statues that once guarded the entrance to a magnificent ancient temple. Continue to the spectacular Temple of Queen Hatshepsut at Deir el-Bahari, an architectural masterpiece built into the cliffs.

After that, head to the Valley of the Kings. This place served as the burial area for several New Kingdom rulers. You will visit chosen tombs. Inside, look at the vivid wall paintings, hieroglyphics, and religious images. These details show what ancient Egyptians believed about life after death. Tomb entry can change based on local rules and your ticket plans.

Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant before crossing to Luxor's East Bank.

On the East Bank, explore the Karnak Temple Complex. It is well known for large columns, different sacred areas, and a long avenue of sphinxes. Afterward, visit Luxor Temple. It has a special feel later in the day, in the late afternoon or evening, when it is lit. The exact timing depends on your itinerary. After a rewarding day of history and exploration, return to your Luxor hotel.

Luxor to Aswan – High Dam, Philae Temple & Nile Felucca

After breakfast, travel from Luxor to Aswan in a private, air-conditioned vehicle, enjoying the changing scenery along the Nile Valley.

Continue to the Unfinished Obelisk in the old granite quarry. You can see how stone workers dealt with huge blocks, and you can get a sense of the quarrying methods they used long ago.

Then visit Philae Temple. It sits on an island and feels calm. The temple is tied to Isis, and you will cross by boat to get there. Walk through the temple halls and look closely at the columns, carved scenes, and quiet inner spaces.

After lunch at a local restaurant, relax on a traditional felucca sailing experience along the Nile. Enjoy views of Elephantine Island, the riverbanks, and Aswan's distinctive scenery. Return to your hotel for a relaxing evening.
