DESCRIPTION

Traveling by metro during your daily tours in Egypt is an excellent way to learn about the city and experience its rich history and culture.

The subway system has been in operation since 1892 and currently includes five lines with over 100 stations.

It is a very clean and safe system that provides a convenient and safe way to travel underground.

You can join Cairo’s daytime tours from any metro station. This is an ideal way to explore the city’s main attractions in one day, providing a unique and enjoyable experience for travelers who want to get to know Cairo up close without dealing with traffic or large crowds.

This half-day tour of Cairo takes you by metro to some of the city’s most important historical and tourist sites, including the Grand Egyptian Museum one of the world's most significant, largest, and most beautiful museums of ancient history Saladin Citadel, the Muhammad Ali Mosque, and other notable landmarks.

This half-day tour of Cairo offers a distinctive and engaging way to explore this dynamic city and engage with the local people.

Participants can enjoy an authentic travel experience and gain a better understanding of everyday life in Cairo.
