DESCRIPTION

A wonderful day tour to Saqqara offers you the chance to explore the 5000-year-old monuments that showcase the legacy of Egyptian civilization. offering one of the most interesting wheelchair-accessible day tours in Cairo and Saqqara. During this tour, you will gain valuable insights into Egypt's rich history and discover how this ancient civilization once greatly influenced the world through its advancements and cultural achievements.

One of the most captivating parts of the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization (NMEC) is a unique room known as the Royal Mummy Hall.

This room is located beneath the main part of the museum, creating a sense of discovery. Here, you can view 22 significant mummies of kings and queens from ancient Egypt. These mummies were previously displayed in another museum but have now been relocated here to be viewed by all.
