ITINERARY

DAY 1

Luxor Tour from Marsa Alam

Your Marsa Alam to Luxor day tour begins early, when your guide picks you up from your hotel and drives you to Luxor.

When you arrive, you start at Luxor Temple, which was built under Pharaoh Amenhotep III and added to by later rulers. Next is Karnak Temple, one of the largest religious complexes ever built, with its huge columns, statues and ancient inscriptions.

You have lunch at a local restaurant, then cross to the West Bank to visit the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut at Deir El-Bahari. The temple is built into the cliffs and is dedicated to one of ancient Egypt's most influential female pharaohs.

Your Luxor temples tour from Marsa Alam continues with a stop at the Colossi of Memnon, two giant statues of Pharaoh Amenhotep III that once stood at the entrance to his mortuary temple.

After your visits, you drive back to Marsa Alam and are taken to your hotel.
