Tour to Kom Ombo and Edfu from Aswan, Daily Tours and Exploration Trips from Aswan

A certified tour guide from Day Tours Egypt will meet you in the lobby of your hotel in Aswan to begin the tour to Kom Ombo and Edfu from Aswan, one of the best-selling day trips in Aswan among our diverse selection of day trips in Egypt. Our expert tour guide will accompany you to the city of Edfu, and you'll stop for a break along the way. Upon arrival, you'll be taken to visit the majestic temple dedicated to the falcon god (Horus), which most people consider the best-preserved temple in Egypt. According to the ancient Egyptian myth about the goddess Isis, this was the place where the falcon-headed god Horus took revenge on his uncle Set for killing his father, Osiris.

The temple's walls are adorned with rich reliefs that provide important information about the era in which it was built, offering details not only about the temple itself but also about the myths, religion, and way of life in ancient Egypt.

You will then visit the Temple of Kom Ombo, which was built between 1350 and 180 B.C. by order of Ramses II; the temple is located on the banks of the Nile in the city of the same name. The god worshiped at the temple is Sobek, a deity with the head of a crocodile and the body of a human; however, the city's inhabitants replaced him with another figure named Harweris, as they did not wish to worship an evil god.

Finally, you'll return to your hotel in Aswan after completing the tour of Kom Ombo and Edfu.
