DAY 2

Day 2: Luxor attractions.

After breakfast at your hotel in Aswan, you can take a first-class train to Luxor. Your guide meets you upon arrival, and we continue by air-conditioned private car, starting from the West Bank with the valley of the Kings. This is the royal necropolis, where many pharaohs of the New Kingdom were laid to rest in tombs cut deep into the mountains to keep their treasures safe from thieves. Next is the temple of Hatshepsut, one of the most unusual monuments of Luxor. It was built for Queen Hatshepsut, one of the most successful rulers of ancient Egypt, and its terraces, tall columns and carved reliefs tell the story of her reign. Then we stop at the Colossus of Memnon, two huge stone statues of Amenhotep III that once guarded the entrance to his funerary temple. We have lunch at an oriental restaurant overlooking the Nile, and in the afternoon we cross to the Eastern Bank of the Karnak Temple. Built over many centuries by various Pharaohs, it grew to become one of the largest religious centers of ancient Egypt, with huge halls, tall columns, sharp obelisks and sacred areas for the Theban gods. When the visit is over, we take you to Luxor airport to return to Cairo, and the flight ends there.
