DESCRIPTION

A beautiful and enjoyable tour of the Pyramids of Giza and Islamic Cairo

Our tour begins with a visit to the Sphinx, one of the most famous and largest tourist attractions in Giza. This massive statue measures approximately 241 feet in length, 20 feet in width, and 66 feet in height. Before it was damaged, its nose was nearly five feet long. The statue's eyes and ears are also quite large, with the eyes reaching a height of six feet and the ears exceeding three feet in height.

Khan El Khalili Tour

As part of our tour, we will also visit the Salah El Din Citadel, which houses several structures built by various Islamic rulers of Cairo.

When you have some free time, you can explore the oldest bazaar in Cairo, the Khan el-Khalili Bazaar, and enjoy some shopping.
