DESCRIPTION

Visit a major World War II site in Egypt on the El Alamein tour from Cairo. This one day outing takes you through parts of the old battle ground. You will also spend time at the El Alamein War Museum to see key details of what took place there. After that, you will go to memorials and burial sites linked to the North Africa fighting, including places for soldiers who never made it home. This historical experience is a meaningful addition to Egypt tours, offering a deeper look at an important chapter in Egypt's history.

An English speaking local guide will travel with your group. They will walk you through the story in simple terms. You can ask questions during the stops. The plan also includes a stop at the German memorial area, then another stop at the Italian memorial area. Later, you will visit the Commonwealth War Cemetery to remember those who died in the fighting.This World War II tour Egypt with Cairo Day Tours offers a meaningful opportunity to learn more about the history of the El Alamein battles and remember those who lost their lives during the fighting.

When the day ends, you will head back to Cairo in a comfortable ride. Our team will stay with you the whole time. If you want to learn more about a less known side of Egypt's WWII history, book this El Alamein day tour from Cairo.
