Daytime tour of Baron Empain's Palace in Cairo .

If you have a layover in Cairo, consider exploring the popular Baron Empain Palace and uncover the intriguing stories hidden within its walls.

Baron Palace Cairo Trip

Baron Empain arrived in Egypt in January 1904 with the goal of reviving one of his wife’s development projects—constructing a railway that would connect Al-Matariyyah to Port Said.

Although he lost the train contract to the British, Empain stayed in Egypt. Our Cairo day tour to Baron Empain Palace is a wonderful activity to experience during your time in Cairo. During this tour, you will have the opportunity to see the grand construction of royalty, as the Baron was the founder of the Electric Railways Company of Cairo and Heliopolis Oases. He also purchased a large area of desert, located some distance from northeastern Cairo at a low price from the British occupation government. Visiting Baron Empain Palace through Cairo trips gives you a chance to uncover the mysteries of this extraordinary palace.

You can visit the castle in Old Cairo, take a walk through this historic area, and explore the Muhammad Ali Mosque and the Castle Palace.

Our one-of-a-kind and unforgettable tour of Baron Palace offers a unique experience. Many stories and legends surround this remarkable Baron Empain Palace.

Baron Empain's Palace is one of Cairo's hidden tourist attractions, situated in the Cairo Governorate, Egypt. This experience allows visitors to discover new perspectives of history and culture in this special location.
