DAY 1

Dahshur, Memphis & Meidum Tour Itinerary

Start your Dahshur Memphis and Meidum Tour from Cairo with a convenient pickup from your hotel in Cairo or Giza. Meet your tour representative and head south toward the ancient sites connected with King Snefru, father of King Khufu.

Begin your archaeological adventure with a Meidum Pyramid tour, exploring one of the earliest stages in the development of the true pyramid. Originally designed as a step pyramid and later transformed, Meidum provides a fascinating insight into the architectural experiments that eventually led to the smooth-sided pyramids of ancient Egypt.

Your guide will explain the history of Snefru and the significance of Meidum as you explore the site.

Continue to Dahshur where two of Egypt most distinctive pyramids await. The Bent Pyramid is particularly remarkable for its unusual change in angle, reflecting the architectural challenges faced during its construction.

Next, you'll discover the Red Pyramid — one of the earliest successful true pyramids and the largest of Snefru pyramids. This part of the Dahshur tour from Cairo gives you a closer look at how ancient Egyptian builders refined pyramid construction during the Old Kingdom.

Leave the pyramid fields behind and continue to Memphis, the ancient capital of Egypt, now known as Mit Rahina. During your Memphis tour from Cairo explore the open-air museum and see remarkable remains, including the colossal statue of Ramses II and other ancient monuments.

Take a break for lunch during the tour then relax on the journey back to Cairo. This Dahshur Memphis Meidum tour brings together three important archaeological destinations in one memorable day.

With Day Tour Egypt, finish your Cairo pyramids tour with a deeper understanding of how ancient Egyptian pyramid architecture developed over generations.
