DESCRIPTION

A trip to Dahshur, Saqqara, and Meidum from Cairo.

Join us on a full-day tour that takes you to the Meidum Pyramid, built during the third dynasty by King Snefru. He was the father of King Cheops, famous for constructing the Giza pyramids. This tour also includes a visit to the Giza Pyramids and the Great Sphinx, which remain fascinating for both visitors and scholars. You will also explore the Saqqara Necropolis.

You will have the opportunity to see the first pyramid built entirely of stone in Egyptian history, the Step Pyramid, which served as the eternal resting place for King Djoser.

Our tours in Cairo offer a great way to visit the Giza Pyramids at an affordable price, exclusively through Cairo Top Tours!

Enjoy the ancient step pyramid at Saqqara, then visit Memphis, the first ancient capital of Egypt. You can shop for souvenirs and enjoy traditional Egyptian cuisine at local eateries.

This tour, part of Cairo Day Tours, provides a unique chance to learn about Egypt's ancient history and the impressive architecture of the pyramids.

Our local guides offer expert insights and historical background, enhancing your experience and helping you understand Egypt's rich cultural heritage.
