DESCRIPTION

Explore the history of ancient Egypt on a private Memphis and Dahshur tour from Cairo. This half-day adventure carries you past the well-known Giza Pyramids and into the capital of Memphis, where you can also witness the striking pyramids of Dahshur, the Bent Pyramid and the Red Pyramid.

Can I visit Memphis and Dahshur in a half-day tour from Cairo?

Yes. A private half-day tour lets you visit both Memphis and Dahshur in one itinerary with a knowledgeable Egyptologist guide and private transport from Cairo.

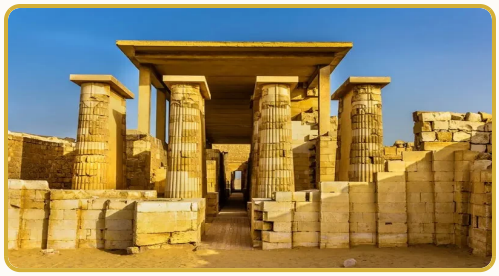

Dahshur is especially important for understanding how ancient Egyptian architects refined pyramid construction. The Bent Pyramid and Red Pyramid of King Snefru show stages in the evolution of pyramid building before the Great Pyramid of Giza.

This Dahshur Pyramid tour from Cairo also brings you to Memphis, one of Egypt's most important cities and the traditional capital of Egypt in the Early Dynastic Period and Old Kingdom.

From the capital of Memphis to the pioneering pyramids of Dahshur, this Cairo Day Tour offers an informative and convenient way to explore some of Egypt's most significant archaeological treasures in just a half-day.

Memphis and Dahshur tour from Cairo

Start your Memphis and Dahshur Pyramids day trip with Day Tours Egypt experience starts in the morning when the driver picks you up from your hotel and drives south of Cairo to Memphis the ancient capital of Egypt. In Memphis you can explore the open-air museum that houses the fallen statue of Ramses II and the beautiful alabaster Sphinx. Your guide will explain why Memphis is so important in Egyptian history. After Memphis you continue to Dahshur to see the Bent Pyramid, which is known for its unusual shape and the Red Pyramid, Egypt's first true smooth-sided pyramid. You can even enter the Red Pyramid through its passageway, which gives a special experience.
