What can you visit on an Old Cairo and National Museum tour with a Felucca Ride?

Your Old Cairo Tour with Felucca Ride begins with your tour guide from Day Tours Egypt and driver picking you up from your hotel in Cairo or Giza. The first stop on the tour will be Old Cairo to see the religious sights and sites.

First on your tour will be a walk through Coptic Cairo where you'll see the famous Hanging Church and surrounding churches. The next site is the Ben Ezra Synagogue. This synagogue is important for understanding more of the religious history in the region.

Next, enjoy a National Museum Tour in Cairo at the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization. Explore the main halls with your tour guide to view some of the exhibits that shed light on Egypt's history. You will also have some time on your own to look at whatever interests you.

Following your tour of the National Museum, your lunch will be served at a local restaurant. Then, your felucca trip will start, where you will have the opportunity to take a classic Egyptian boat trip across the Nile and relax to the views of the city.

At the end of your Old Cairo Tour with Felucca Ride, your driver will transfer you back to your hotel in Cairo or Giza, bringing your cultural sightseeing experience to a relaxing close.
