DESCRIPTION

From the familiar shapes of the pyramids to the historic streets of Coptic Cairo and the peaceful waters of the Nile, this Private Giza Pyramids and Coptic Cairo Tour with Day Tours Egypt brings three distinct Cairo experiences together in one day. You get to see the city's ancient landmarks, look into its religious heritage, and finish with a different view from a traditional Egyptian sailboat.

The day starts with a Giza Pyramids private day tour, so you have time to walk around the Great Pyramids and the Great Sphinx. From there the focus shifts to a Coptic Cairo, where the historic churches, mosques and other sites show the area's long cultural and religious past.

As the day winds down you step onto a felucca for a quiet sail along the Nile. If you're wondering whether you can visit the Giza Pyramids and Coptic Cairo with a felucca ride in one day, this Cairo day tour puts them together with the transport and transfers already sorted. A Cairo pyramids tour with felucca ride works well if you want more than just a quick look at the monuments, while this private Cairo cultural excursion gives a varied sense of Cairo's history, heritage and riverside scenery.

ITINERARY

DAY 1

Private Giza Pyramids and Coptic Cairo Tour

Your private tour starts with pickup from your hotel in Cairo or Giza then a drive out to the Giza Plateau. You explore the Giza Pyramids and the Great Sphinx while your guide talks through their history and how they were built. There's time to take it in and get some photos.

Next you head to Coptic Cairo for a walk through the old streets. You visit the Hanging Church and a few of the nearby churches that show the area's long religious and cultural history.

After the historical sites you continue to the Nile for a quiet felucca ride. You step onto the traditional Egyptian sailboat, enjoy the river views and get a break from the city. At the end of your private Cairo cultural excursion you're transferred back to your hotel in Cairo or Giza.
