DESCRIPTION

Embark on a new journey with our Cairo Half-Day Tours, including the Memphis and Dahshur Half-Day Tour. This exciting trip offers an opportunity to explore the rich history and remarkable achievements of ancient Egyptian civilization.

During the tour, you will visit the Memphis Open Air Museum and see the Alabaster Sphinx, a monument from the 18th dynasty discovered near the ruins of Memphis.

You will also have the chance to explore the Red Pyramid, the third-largest pyramid in Egypt, built by Pharaoh Sneferu after the pyramids of Cheops and Chephren.

Additionally, you will visit the Bent Pyramid in Dahshur, which has recently become accessible to the public. Its unique design reflects one of the earliest examples of pyramid construction.

Make sure not to miss the Memphis Open Air Museum, a great place to gain insight into ancient Egypt.

Book now to enjoy the best deals on luxury tours in Egypt and experience an unforgettable journey in the land of the pharaohs.
