DAY 1

Cairo Unique Experiences Day Tour

Begin your day with one of the most unusual Cairo experiences beyond the main attractions. This experience blends Egypt's past, cultural events and a calm Nile motorboat trip. As part of Egypt Day Tours this private tour gives you a view of Cairo away from the famous pyramids and museums.

The morning starts with a hotel pickup and a trip to Abdeen Palace, right in downtown Cairo. Built in 1863 under Khedive Ismail this palace was once the home of Egypt's monarchs and a place for receptions. Walk through the halls with a guide and learn about Egypt's royal heritage, the palace's architecture and its history.

Afterwards go to the Pharaonic Village, a place that shows what life was like in ancient Egypt. Take a walk through the areas and learn how people from long ago lived what they did for work and what they did every day. This stop makes your tour of Cairo more interesting. Teaches you something new about Egypt's amazing past. The tour also includes a motorboat ride on the Nile letting you see Cairo from the water and pause from the streets.

During the tour you will have lunch and some free time to relax before you continue. Once you have seen these sites you will be taken back to your hotel.

Take this Cairo Day Tour to see landmarks, family-friendly fun and Nile scenery all in one plan. It is a choice for travelers who want an unusual Cairo experience beyond the main attractions and who want a memorable day with Egypt Day Tours.
