DESCRIPTION

A one-day tour in Cairo offers a unique experience with special attractions. You will visit the Abdeen Palace and the Pharaonic Village, followed by a motorboat ride on the Nile and a delicious lunch during your tour, guided by an expert Egypt tour guide. The Pharaonic Village showcases an arts center, games, mini amusement parks, and a photography specialized center. The Abdeen Palace was built in 1863 by Khedive Ismail. This Egypt day tour is designed to give you a diverse and enriching experience, allowing you to explore the rich history, culture, and art of Cairo. The tour provides a deep insight into the city's heritage, combining historical exploration with cultural immersion in a seamless way.
