ITINERARY

1

Giza Pyramids and Alexandria overnight trip

Start your 2 day Cairo and Alexandria package with a warm welcome at Cairo International Airport, where our representative will greet you holding a sign with your name. Next, you will meet your English-speaking Egyptologist and travel to the Giza Pyramids, one of Egypt's most famous ancient sites and a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Explore the Great Pyramid of King Khufu, the Pyramid of King Chephren and the Pyramid of King Mycerinus while you learn about their history and the ancient Egyptian beliefs about burials. Enjoy views of the three pyramids, take memorable photos and decide whether to take an optional camel ride. Then go to the Valley Temple of Chephren. See the Great Sphinx, carved from one block of limestone.

After that, have lunch at a restaurant. Then head to the Grand Egyptian Museum, also known as GEM. It holds ancient Egyptian artifacts. After the visit, go to your hotel in Cairo to check in and spend the night. You can also choose to do some evening activities in Cairo.

Included Meals:Lunch.

Cairo Alexandria overnight sightseeing

After breakfast at your hotel, you will travel in a air-conditioned car to Alexandria, about 2.5 hours from Cairo. Alexandria was founded by Alexander the Great. Alexandria is a city famous for its Greco-Roman heritage and historic landmarks.

Begin the Cairo and Alexandria guided overnight tour with a visit to the Catacombs of Kom El-Shoqafa. The Catacombs of Kom El-Shoqafa are a burial site that blends ancient Egyptian and Roman art. Next, go to Pompeys Pillar, a monument near the ruins of the ancient Serapeum. Then visit the Citadel of Qaitbay, built on the site of Alexandria's lighthouse. Finally, visit the Bibliotheca Alexandrina, a tribute to the legendary ancient library.

The traveler enjoys a seafood lunch at a local restaurant. After lunch the traveler returns to the hotel in Cairo or to Cairo International Airport, depending on when the traveler leaves.

Included meals: breakfast, lunch.
