DESCRIPTION

Wonderful tours tailored for people with special needs in Memphis, Saqqara, and Dahshur

Our team of experts and professional guides will accompany you on this private Wheelchair Accessible Tour to the Giza Pyramids, Saqqara, and Memphis.

They will share all the knowledge and insights about ancient Egyptian religion and art with you. The tour will start with a visit to the Great Pyramids of Giza and the Great Sphinx.

After exploring the grand pyramids in Giza, we will move on to Saqqara, also known as the Necropolis of Egypt, which is home to the oldest pyramid in the country.

There, you will see the unique pyramid built for King Djoser many centuries ago. We will also visit the tombs of important figures and another pyramid that was built for King Teti, who ruled Egypt a long time ago.

A visit to the Mummies Room at the Grand Egyptian Museum will give you a deep understanding of Egypt’s history.

It’s like stepping back in time and discovering the past in a fascinating way.

Book your private guided Cairo day tours and excursions today!

If you’re at the airport and have some free time, you can also explore our fantastic Cairo day tours starting from the airport. It’s an excellent choice.

ITINERARY

DAY 1

Memphis, Saqqara, and Dahshur Wheelchair Accessible Tours

The day starts with a private, wheelchair-accessible pickup, heading first to the Giza Plateau to see the Great Pyramids and the Great Sphinx. From there, the tour continues to Saqqara, home to Egypt's oldest pyramid—the Step Pyramid of King Djoser—along with the tombs of notable ancient figures and the pyramid built for King Teti. The day wraps up with a visit to the Mummies Room at the Grand Egyptian Museum, a stop that brings the whole journey together with a closer look at Egypt's ancient history. Afterward, you'll be transferred back to your hotel.
