DESCRIPTION

A wonderful day tour at reasonable prices to the Pyramids of Giza and Saqqara

When you visit Egypt, you have the chance to explore the ancient monuments of a civilization that is over 5000 years old.

Cairo Top Tours provides an engaging and insightful tour of the Giza Pyramids and Saqqara. This tour offers a deep understanding of Egypt's rich history and the significant role its ancient civilization played in shaping the world through its achievements and cultural heritage. The spectacular Giza Pyramids tour is a must-do experience in Cairo. During this tour, you'll also visit the Saqqara Necropolis, where you can see the oldest known stone step pyramid in ancient history, built for King Djoser, who ruled Egypt about 4,700 years ago. You'll also have the chance to explore the Tombs of the Nobles and the Temple of Serapis.

Saqqara is often referred to as an open museum because it houses numerous relics and artifacts from ancient Egyptian history.

It includes the tombs of kings and senior officials from the First and Second Dynasties, which date back to approximately 3040-2686 BC. The Step Pyramid, built by King Djoser, is also recognized as the oldest massive stone structure in history.
