DESCRIPTION

When you visit Egypt, you have the opportunity to explore ancient monuments that are more than 5,000 years old. Day Tours Egypt offers an engaging and educational tour in Cairo that includes a visit to the Giza Pyramids, Saqqara, and a motorboat trip on the Nile.

This tour gives you a deeper understanding of Egypt’s rich history and the remarkable achievements of its ancient civilization, which once had a significant influence on the world through its advancements and cultural heritage.

The Giza Pyramids tour is one of the must-see experiences in Cairo. During this tour, you will also visit Saqqara Necropolis, where you can see the oldest stone step pyramid in history, built for King Djoser, who ruled Egypt approximately 4,700 years ago. You will also have the chance to explore the tombs of the nobles in Saqqara and view the impressive collection of ancient Egyptian statues located in the area known as the Serapium.

Saqqara is home to the oldest step pyramid in the world, the Step Pyramid of Djoser, built during the Third Dynasty.

The site also includes 16 royal pyramids, some of which are in varying states of preservation.
