DESCRIPTION

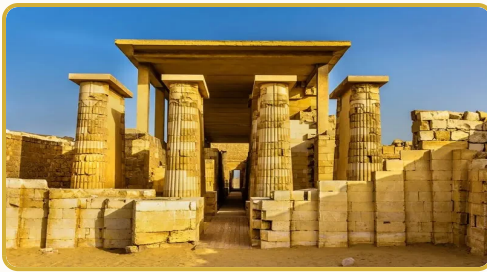

A day trip from Giza to Memphis and Dahshur, including a felucca ride on the Nile

Join Day Tours Egypt for a full-day excursion from Cairo to Memphis, Dahshur, and a serene felucca ride. Begin your journey in Memphis, the former capital of Egypt’s Old Kingdom, where you can view the impressive colossal statue of Ramses II. Then, head to Dahshur to admire the Curved Pyramid and the Red Pyramid, both of which are among the earliest examples of pyramid construction. End your day with a peaceful cruise on a felucca dhow along the Nile River, taking in the tranquil waters and stunning scenery. This tour blends historical discovery with moments of relaxation, making it an ideal way to experience something different from Cairo.

Giza Governorate is known for its abundance of ancient Pharaonic landmarks, which have made it a top destination for tourists.

It ranks second in terms of Pharaonic sites, after Luxor, and features some of Egypt’s most iconic monuments, including the Pyramids of Giza, the Sphinx, the Sound and Light Project, the Saqqara Pyramid, and Khufu’s funerary boat.
