ITINERARY

DAY 1

Luxor 2 day tour with hot air balloon

Arrive at the hotel and check in. Then meet your guide in the lobby. Your guide can speak English. After that, your best Luxor 2 day itinerary begins. You will visit well-known ancient places. You will also see key objects from Egypt.

You start the day at the Valley of the Kings. The tombs are cut right into the desert slopes. Walk slowly and look at the outer walls. You may notice painted parts and carved moments.

Next, you go to the Hatshepsut Temple in Deir El Bahari. The name links back to Hatshepsut, a ruler in ancient Egypt. The temple feels strong and grand as soon as you arrive. It also spans a wide area.

Afterward, visit the Temple of Ramesses III at Medinet Habu. The stone walls are sturdy and heavy. The carvings fill the surfaces. Many small parts still look sharp and complete.

Later, you head to the Colossi of Memnon. Two large stone statues stand there. They are connected to Pharaoh Amenhotep III. They face the West Bank. They have been set in that direction for many years.

When the tours are done, return to the hotel. Eat dinner at the hotel. After dinner, you will stay overnight and sleep.

DAY 2

Luxor hot air balloon

Start your morning with a hot air balloon trip over Luxor. From up high, you will see the Nile, the temple sites, and the fields around them. After the flight ends, you land and return to your hotel. Have breakfast there, then complete your check-out. Once that is done, you head out for the Luxor East Bank.

Your first stop is the Karnak Temple Complex. This place is one of the largest ancient religious sites in Egypt. You can wander through open courtyards and also step into long halls. Look closely at the tall columns and the carved stonework. While you move through the sections, it feels like each area was added little by little over many years by the pharaohs.

Then you visit Luxor Temple. It sits on the east side of the Nile, so you will not miss it. Spend time near the main gate. Notice the wide columns, the statues, and the designs carved into the walls. Walk through the different areas, and you can sense what the temple was built to display.

When you finish, you return by private car. The ride is calm and smooth. If you have a flight, you can be dropped at Luxor Airport instead. After that, your time in Egypt is over.
