DESCRIPTION

Best Itinerary for 2 Days in Luxor | Luxor 2-Day Tour

Luxor, known as the city of ancient Egyptian history, is a top destination for travelers. To help you reach it efficiently, we provide an all-inclusive 2-day package starting from Hurghada day tours to Luxor. This package includes a Luxor hot air balloon ride over the Valley of the Kings, offering stunning views of the ancient city and its surrounding areas. By taking this tour, you will enjoy a unique perspective from above and experience something truly unforgettable, creating lasting memories.

You will also visit the Temple of Dendera, located in the southeast of the city of Dendera in Luxor. This temple is dedicated to the goddess of love, happiness, and beauty, Hathor. Built in the Greco-Roman architectural style, it was formerly known as the House of Hathor and is regarded as one of the largest religious temples of ancient Egypt. During your visit, you will also explore a mini-museum that features replicas of famous architectural monuments from ancient Egyptian history.

ITINERARY

Day 1: - Check in & Luxor West Bank Tour

After you check into your hotel, our English-speaking tour guide will accompany you on a tour of the West Bank. The West Bank is a UNESCO World Heritage site and features some of Egypt's most renowned landmarks. Your first stop will be the tombs of the Nobles and the Valley of the Kings. You will also have the opportunity to visit the Al-Deir Al-Bahari Temple, which is located a short distance from Luxor city center but is definitely worth the trip. Here, you can see many statues of Pharaohs, including those of King Tutankhamun, who was found buried in his own tomb. Next, you will visit the Temple of Ramesses II, which was built during the 19th dynasty. The temples are encircled by a complex network of canals that were used for both irrigation and transportation. Then, you will explore the Temple of Hatshepsut, constructed during the 18th dynasty and serving as one of Egypt's earliest examples of a female ruler's reign. Finally, you will visit the Colossi of Memnon, two large statues built by King Amenhotep III originally intended for his funerary temple at western Thebes. Later, King Merneptah took over the site and used it for his own temple. Once you have explored these impressive sites, we will return to your hotel for dinner and spend the night there.

Day 2: - Hot air balloon in the morning and East Bank Tour

In the morning, take a hot air balloon ride over the Luxor Temple. It is now time to explore the east bank of Luxor! Return to your hotel for breakfast, then check out and head to visit the Karnak Temple Complex, which is one of the largest religious sites in Egypt. The complex includes more than 20 temples spread across its large area. It was initially built by Pharaoh Amenhotep III, later expanded by Ramses II, and restored by Alexander the Great during his conquest of Egypt. Your next destination is the Luxor Temple, which was constructed by Hatshepsut and dedicated to the god Amun-Ra. Following that, you will be transferred back to your hotel or the Luxor Airport to catch your flight back home. What is the most special thing in Egypt? The Necropolis of Giza is the most famous tourist attraction in Egypt. It is well-known and often considered the top destination for visitors to the country.
