DESCRIPTION

The Quad Bike and National Museum Tour from Luxor is an exciting full-day tour that combines the adventure of quad biking with a visit to the famous National Museum in Cairo.

The tour starts with a thrilling quad bike ride through the beautiful desert areas surrounding Luxor. You will get to ride over sand dunes and experience the excitement of off-road adventure on a quad bike. Following the ride, the tour includes a visit to the National Museum.

At the museum, you can explore a large collection of ancient Egyptian artifacts, such as statues, jewelry, and mummies, offering a deep insight into Egypt's rich history.

Throughout the tour, experienced guides will share informative details about the exhibits and their significance, helping you better understand the stories behind them. This tour offers a unique combination of adventure and cultural discovery, allowing you to enjoy the thrill of quad biking while also exploring the heritage of ancient Egypt.

It is one of our top tours in Egypt, offering a day of quad biking and a visit to the national museum of civilization, followed by your return to Luxor.
