DESCRIPTION

Embark on a 5-day/4-night Nile cruise tour that takes you from Aswan to Luxor, offering a unique opportunity to explore the stunning landscapes of the Nile Valley. Enjoy the serene beauty of the river as you travel through the heart of Egypt, where you can discover rich historical and cultural sites. Highlights of the tour include visits to ancient temples and monuments, such as Kom Ombo and Edfu, as well as the impressive rock-cut temple of Abu Simbel. The cruise also features a variety of nightly entertainment options, including performances of traditional belly dance, galabeya parties, Nubian cultural shows, and disco nights. A typical itinerary includes a visit to the Karnak Temple Complex in Luxor, one of the largest and most significant temple complexes in the world.

ITINERARY

DAY 1

Day 1: Start your Nile Cruise / Luxor East Bank tour

Upon arriving at Luxor Airport, you will be transferred to your cruise ship for a four-night cruise along the Nile River in Egypt. After completing check-in, you will begin your guided day tours in Luxor, starting with the East Bank tour. This includes a visit to the Karnak Temple, which is a grand open-air museum and the second-largest ancient religious complex in the world. You will also explore Luxor Temple, where historical evidence suggests it was the site of one of Egypt’s ancient festivals, the Opet Festival, as illustrated by the carvings on its walls depicting the celebration. For lunch, you will be returned to the cruise ship. Following lunch, you may choose to stay on board or attend a sound and light show at the Karnak Temples, a highly recommended nighttime activity in Luxor (available for an extra fee). Meals: Lunch, Dinner.

DAY 2

Day 2: Luxor West Bank and sail to Edfu

An optional hot air balloon tour over the West Bank is available at an additional cost. After breakfast, you will start your day cruise to the West Bank of Luxor tour. Your first stop will be the Necropolis of Thebes in the Valley of the Kings, a site that is essential for all travelers. Following this, you will visit three royal tombs from different dynasties, including the Tomb of Ramses III, the Tomb of Ramses IV, and the Tomb of Merenptah. Your tour guide will provide guidance and help you decide which tombs to visit. After exploring the tombs at Medinet Habu, you will be taken to the Temple of Ramses III. There is an optional entrance fee for Tutankhamun's tomb, which is 300.00 EGP. At the end of the day, you will visit the Two Colossi of Memnon, which are two large statues representing King Amenhotep III in a seated position. You will then return to the floating hotel for lunch and a folkloric performance before heading back to Edfu for the night. Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner.

Day 3: Edfu Temple and Kom Ombo Temple / Aswan

After breakfast, you will visit the Temple of Horus at Edfu, a temple dedicated to the falcon god Horus and considered the most well-preserved and complete Egyptian temple. Afterward, you'll return to the ship for a delicious lunch and continue sailing toward Kom Ombo. During the trip, you can relax on the deck and enjoy the breathtaking views of the great Nile River. In the afternoon, you will have tea on the sun deck. Later, you will make a stop to see the remarkable double temple, which is devoted to Sobek, the crocodile god, and Horus, the falcon god. You will return to the cruise ship for dinner, followed by a folkloric celebration arranged by the crew and tour guides. The cruise will then continue towards Aswan, where you will stay for the night. Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 4

Day 4: Abu Simbel Trip

Your guide will collect you in the early morning for a tour of Abu Simbel, a place featuring one of Egypt's most impressive landmarks: the rock-hewn temples of Abu Simbel, constructed for King Ramses II and his cherished Queen Nefertari. You will return to the ship at noon for lunch and some time to relax. The afternoon is free for your own activities. Dinner will be served on board, followed by a performance of Nubian folklore. You'll be spending the night in Aswan.

DAY 5

Day 5: Aswan Tour and Departure transfer

After having breakfast, take some time off to visit Aswan with your guide and learn about the history of Nubian immigration. Start your day in Aswan by visiting the High Dam, constructed in 1960 to prevent flooding in Egypt and to produce electricity. You will travel by small boat to the Temple of Isis in Philae, which is dedicated to the goddess Isis. Following that, you will be taken to Aswan International Airport to board a flight back to Cairo.
