DESCRIPTION

A tour of the magnificent temples of Edfu and the beautiful Kom Ombo, departing from Luxor

This full-day tour begins with a scenic drive from your hotel in Luxor, taking you north along the river towards two remarkable ancient temple sites.

In the morning, your guide will accompany you on this journey to explore these historical marvels.

Luxor sightseeing tours start with a visit to the town of Edfu, famous for its well-preserved Temple of Horus. This temple, dedicated to the falcon-headed god, is one of the best-preserved religious sites in Egypt. The temple features detailed carvings and sculptures that offer valuable insights into the beliefs and practices of ancient Egyptians.

Next, you will head to the Temple of Kom Ombo, situated on a hillside overlooking the Nile.

This unique temple is dedicated to both the falcon god Horus and the crocodile deity Sobek. Its striking dual design is an architectural highlight and provides a fascinating glimpse into the religious diversity of the time. The views from the temple site enhance the overall experience.

Luxor excursions include expert guidance throughout the tour, offering detailed explanations that help enrich your understanding of the culture and history.

Transportation between Luxor, Edfu, and Kom Ombo is included, allowing you to relax and fully appreciate the historical setting. This comprehensive tour provides a rare opportunity to explore two exceptionally well-preserved temples located along the Nile River.
