Luxor West Bank Tour

A captivating journey through the historical and archaeological treasures of the West Bank is offered by Luxor day tours.

The Luxor West Bank Tour of Luxor, Egypt, highlights the most famous sites that reflect the rich historical and cultural heritage of ancient Egypt.

Situated on the western bank of the Nile River in Luxor, Egypt, the Luxor West Bank is a remarkable archaeological site.

It offers an insight into the history and culture of ancient Egypt through its numerous ancient tombs, temples, and monuments. Explore the treasures of Egypt and its ancient civilization! The world's largest outdoor museum, Luxor City, awaits your discovery as you explore it.

Before continuing with your Egypt Day Tours, our expert Egyptologist guide will lead you to visit the most colorful temple in Egypt, the Temple of Medinet Habu, built by Pharaoh Ramses III and renowned worldwide.

You will also see the largest temples and the oldest rock-cut tombs on the West Bank of the Nile River in Luxor, as well as the magnificent Temple of Memnon and the beautifully decorated royal tombs in the Valley of the Kings.

Our guide and driver will take you to visit the tombs of the high officials in the area of Deir El Madina, as well as the worker's village where the artisans and workers who created the royal tombs in the Valley of the Kings once lived.

Luxor excursions: If I were in your shoes, I wouldn't hesitate to take this trip to see the main sites of Egypt's civilization.

If you are passionate about learning about history, this is the perfect way to do it.
