ITINERARY

DAY 1

Luxor Royal Tombs Private Tour

Start your Luxor Royal Tombs Private Tour with pickup from your hotel in Luxor. Then head across the Nile to the West Bank, where famous royal tombs from ancient Egypt are waiting.

With your Day Tours Egypt guide, visit the Valley of the Kings. Here you can see the decorated tombs of Egyptian pharaohs. Look closely at the painted walls, the hieroglyphs, and the images that relate to life after death. You may also enter Tutankhamun’s tomb if tickets are available, and if you pay the required entrance fee.

Next, move on to the Valley of the Queens. This is where royal wives and princes were laid to rest. Learn more about the tombs and their stories. You can also see the well known tomb of Queen Nefertari, admired for its strong colors and careful artwork. A separate ticket is needed for Nefertari’s tomb, and entry depends on current access rules.

As you travel throughout the day, your guide will tell you the history, the symbolism, and the royal stories of these amazing tombs and your journey to see the marvel of Egyptian civilization. Upon visiting theValley of the Queens and Egyptian Ancient Tombs, relax on your return drive to your hotel in Luxor.

What is the difference between the Valley of the Kings and the Valley of the Queens?

The Valley of the Kings was mainly the burial place of pharaohs, while the Valley of the Queens was primarily for royal wives and princes. Both sites feature fascinating ancient tombs, colorful artwork, and insights into Egyptian beliefs about the afterlife.
