DESCRIPTION

A wonderful daytime tour of Luxor to the East and West Banks

The enchanting city of Luxor is located in southern Egypt (Upper Egypt) on the east bank of the great Nile River. It is often called the "World's Greatest Open-Air Museum." Due to its incredible collection of ancient sites, it is one of the most significant historical travel destinations globally.

The Luxor Day Tour includes visits to the Mummification Museum, the Valley of Queens, and the Temple of Hatshepsut.

The Valley of Queens is the final resting place of many ancient Egyptian queens, featuring intricate artwork and hieroglyphics. Following this, you will visit the Temple of Hatshepsut, an impressive example of ancient Egyptian architecture dedicated to a female pharaoh. The tour concludes at the Mummification Museum, where you will learn about the ancient Egyptian process of mummification and the interesting rituals and techniques involved. This tour offers a deep and engaging experience into the history and culture of ancient Egypt.

Luxor is one of the most visited tourist spots in Egypt.

It is famous for its ancient Egyptian ruins, including the Valley of the Queens, the Temple of Hatshepsut, and the Mummification Museum. All these sites can be explored through our Luxor day tours. The Valley of the Queens is a peaceful, beautiful, and magnificent place; it serves as a burial ground for many ancient Egyptian queens and princesses.

Luxor day trips allow you to explore the remarkable sites on a special Luxor day tour from Cairo, which is an experience not to be missed during a visit to this remarkable country.
