DESCRIPTION

Over view

Luxor Private Sightseeing Tour from Marsa Allam

An Egypt tour of Luxor offers you a rare chance to view one-third of the world’s monuments.

During these Luxor day tours, you’ll explore the Valley of the Queens, Luxor Temple, and many other historical sites that are part of the most exciting Luxor day tours. Highlights of your visit include the Luxor Temple and the Valley of the Kings, which are among the most famous attractions in Luxor, a city known for its numerous temples that are the backdrop to many legends and stories from Egyptian mythology.

Luxor is a city rich in history, which explains why its people are often seen as virtuous.

The west and east banks of Luxor are home to some of the most impressive ancient Egyptian temples. Additionally, the city is located along a beautiful river, making it an ideal place to live.

Luxor is internationally recognized as an open-air museum, featuring a remarkable Egyptian temple complex in the city center.

The ruins at Karnak and Luxor are just a short walk from the west bank of Theban Necropolis, which is home to some of the most famous monuments and tombs in all of Egypt.

ITINERARY

DAY 1

flight from Marsa Alam to luxor Day tour

Our representative will collect you from your hotel in Marsa Alam in a modern, air-conditioned vehicle and take you to Luxor to explore its many historical sites.

First, we will visit the Luxor Temple on the eastern bank of the Luxor River, also known as Thebes ancient. It was constructed around 1400 BC as a place of worship for Amun-Ra and his wife Mut. It is one of the most beautifully preserved and impressive Egyptian temples, and it is clearly visible among other Egyptian temples. Unlike other temples in Luxor which were built for the worship of one god or a version of the king himself after his death, this temple was dedicated to the god Amun-Ra.

Next, we will head to the Valley of the Kings, where the most famous pharaohs of the New Kingdom, including those from the 18th, 19th, and 20th Dynasties, are buried.

This site contains over 63 royal tombs, and it is one of Luxor's most stunning locations. Known also as the Valley of the Gates of the Kings, it is located in the southern region of Egypt. More than 70 pharaohs who ruled during the New Kingdom are buried here. The tombs that are most worth visiting were carved during the time following the glory of the pyramids, and include those of famous kings such as Tutankhamun, Ramses II, Ramses VI, Seti I, and many others.

Our next stop is the Valley of the Queens, where the wives of pharaohs were buried in ancient times.

Here, you will be able to visit the tombs of Queen Titi, the Ramesside princes Khaemwaset and Amunherkhepshef, and the tomb of Nefertari, which is considered the best in all of Egypt. Nefertari Meritmut was one of the most famous queens of Egypt and the first wife of Ramesses the Great.

Then, we will visit the Luxor village of Draa Abu Al-Naga.

In 2003, a joint Egyptian-Spanish archaeological mission uncovered the Djehouti and Hurry tombs from the New Kingdom. The mission also revealed several other tombs, coffins, mummies, and a funerary garden. When you visit, you will see the most notable tombs, including those of King Amenophis I and Queen Ahmes Nefertari.

Finally, we will visit the Colossi of Memnon, which are two large statues of Pharaoh Amenhotep III.

These statues were built under the supervision of the famous architect Amenhotep bin Hapu and are now known as the Colossi of Memnon. This Pharaoh ruled Egypt during the 18th Dynasty.

After the tour, you will be driven back to your hotel in Luxor.

The tour can also end at Luxor Airport.
