ITINERARY

DAY 1

tour to luxor east bank

From your hotel in Marsa Alam, we will pick you up in an air-conditioned vehicle and take you to Luxor. Throughout the trip, you will be accompanied by a knowledgeable English-speaking Egyptologist who has extensive knowledge of Egyptian history. Upon arrival in Luxor, you will visit the Karnak Temple on the east bank, which is considered the finest example of ancient worship, dedicated to the gods Amon, his wife Mut, and their son Khonsu. You will spend approximately three hours exploring the site.

Next, you will continue your day with a visit to the Luxor Temple, which was initiated by King Amunhotep III during the 18th Dynasty of the New Kingdom and completed by Ramses II in the 19th Dynasty.

Afterward, you will have lunch on an island, which includes a boat trip. Following lunch, we will check you into your 5-star hotel and allow you some time to rest.

Later in the day, you will experience an impressive light and sound show at the Karnak Temple, which is highly recommended for history enthusiasts or anyone interested in learning more about ancient Egypt. The light display will vividly outline the temple's history and its significance in ancient Egyptian culture, while the accompanying sound presentation will provide an engaging and captivating experience that will leave you wanting to return for more.

At the end of the first day, you will stay overnight at your hotel.

tour to luxor west bank

After having breakfast on the second day, leave the hotel and travel to the west bank of Luxor. Here, you can visit the Colossi of Memnon, which once stood as guards at the entrance to the Temple of Amenophis III. Then, you will drive through the Valley of the Kings, where more than 70 tombs have been carved into the rock. You will have the opportunity to see three of the most impressive ones, including those of Ramses VI and Tutankhamun, though an extra fee is required for entry. Next, head to the group of terrace temples associated with Hatshepsut. After a Nile cruise, take a lunch break to rest up before departing Luxor and returning to Marsa Alam.
