In the Giza Necropolis, you will have the opportunity to explore the Great Pyramids of King Khufu, also known as Cheops, the son of King Snefru, who was the founder of the fourth dynasty of ancient Egyptian history. This pyramid was the tallest building in the world until the 14th century.

Your Egyptologist guide will take you to visit the pyramid of King Khafra, known as Chephren, and the final pyramid in the Giza Necropolis, built for King Menkaure, also known as Mycerinus.

You will also receive entrance tickets to the Pyramid of Khafre, which is the second-largest pyramid in Giza and believed to have been constructed as the Pharaoh's tomb during the 4th Dynasty.

Continuing your Cairo tours, you will visit Saqqara to see the first pyramid-shaped tomb built by the ancient Egyptians, the Step Pyramid, designed by the architect Imhotep during Egypt's third dynasty for King Djoser. This was the first pyramid built for a king. You will also visit one of the Mastaba Tombs of the Nobles at Saqqara to witness the daily life scenes of ancient Egypt, including various corridors and activities of that era.
