ITINERARY

DAY 1

Tour to The Giza Pyramids and Grand Egyptian Museum

After breakfast on board, meet your dedicated, skilled Egyptologist tour guide and set out for a full day of discovering the Giza Pyramids and the Grand Egyptian Museum.

Start your trip to Cairo. After arrival, you will head to the Giza Pyramids & The Great Sphinx. The pyramids were built during Egypt's Fourth Dynasty, approximately 2600–2500 BC. Then, visit the Great Sphinx, which has a famous Dream Stela. A stone monument placed between its front paws records a story associated with Prince Thutmose, later Pharaoh Thutmose IV.

After that, Explore the Valley Temple. The temple was built from enormous limestone blocks, with sections encased in granite. The scale of the masonry demonstrates the impressive engineering capabilities of ancient Egyptian builders.

After you finish your visit to the Giza Plateau, you will head to the Grand Egyptian Museum to see the ancient artifacts and Tutankhamun's golden mask and Personal belongings, and learn more about the ancient pharaonic period.

Finally, you will head to a good-quality restaurant for a lunch break and return to Port Said Port for final departure.
