ITINERARY

DAY 1

Day 1: Itinerary: Cairo to St Catherine

Our Egyptologist guide will pick you up in the morning by your Professional guide who will accompany you privately by Cairo Top Tours, start enjoying one of our most historical trips and things to do from Cairo. Following one of the probable routes of the Israelites during the biblical exodus, you will be transferred by a modern car from your hotel in Cairo. The journey to Mount Sinai's amazing overnight tours from anywhere in Cairo is between 6 to 7 hours to reach St Catherine town, we will drive through the tunnel of Ahmed Hamdi located in the Suez Governorate and we will go under the water of the Suez Canal. We will let you stop for a toilet break to stretch your legs on the way and it gives you the chance to have a drink if you want and to rest for a while. Then we will also stop at Moses’ wells where according to tradition Moses has split the rock into water springs for watering the Israelites. (If it is open) and you will discuss with your guide the probable routes that the sons of Israel might have taken during the biblical exodus when the sea was parted for Moses and the Pharaoh drowned (most probably Ramses the second or Merinptah). We will help you to have a smooth check-in, you will rest at the hotel in St Catherine and spend the evening at leisure. The dinner will be served in the hotel then you can take a break before you start climbing Mt.Sinai in the early hours of the next day. Meals: Dinner

Day 2: Itinerary: Climb Mount Sinai and visit St Catherine Monastery to Cairo

Inside the monastery, you will see the Burning Bush, surrounded by a small chapel built by Queen Helena, the mother of Emperor Constantine. You will also visit the Church of Transfiguration, constructed by Emperor Justinian. Saint Catherine Monastery is also home to the second most important Christian library in the world, after the Vatican Library, which is not open to the public. Additionally, there is a Muslim mosque within the monastery that has never been used because it was not properly oriented toward the Qibla or the direction of the holy Kaaba in Mecca. Your professional guide will show you the mosque and explain its history. Along the way, you will stop to see the rock where the Israelites placed the golden calf, which is said to have produced a voice like that of gods. You will also visit the tomb of Aaron, the younger brother of Moses, which is believed to be the resting place of this biblical prophet. After completing your overnight trip to Mount Sinai, you will be transferred back to Cairo. This marks the end of your Mount Sinai overnight tour from Cairo. Meals: Breakfast..
